VOL. 10, NO. 210 MONESSEN, PA., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1912 SIX CENTS THE WEEK

A MONESSEN MAN NAMED BY TENER

Governor John K. Tener yesterday appointed a commission to make a study of the industrial accidents of our state and to draft an employers' liability bill for the consideration of the next legislature. This commission was authorized by an act of the last legislature, and it is the Governor's desire to secure the enactment during his administration.

The commission is as follows: David A. Reed, attorney, Pittsburgh; John J. Cushing, Page mill, Monessen; J. Barry Calahan, attorney, Philadelphia; Wm. Morris, coal operator, Philadelphia; Geo. C. Hetzel, manufacturer, Philadelphia; Francis Feehan, mine workers' official, Pittsburgh; Francis H. Bahlen, Penna University.

New Business for Charleroi

Charleroi, it is stated, will within the next few months become the headquarters of a large mercantile house. The storeroom in the Might building on Fifth street has been leased for a period of 21 years and on the completion of the room about April 1, the company will move in.

It is said a representative had been looking over the ground in this part of the valley for some time and finally settled on Charleroi as the town in which to locate. Nothing is known yet as to what line of goods is to be handled or made.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Dick and son are visitors today in the city.

Star Theatre

People looking for an hours entertainment should not fail to attend the Star tonight. Frank Fairchilds and Co. present a comic act that pleased a large house last evening and Laura Davis in a repertoire of the latest songs possesses a good voice and uses it to excellent advantage. The bill closes with the battle of "Sandago" by the Deforests and Co., an extremely funny burlesque on a fight on a battle ship. All special scenery being used.

COUNCIL TO RUSH THIRD STREET BRIDGE

For the second time this week Council met last evening, and in the absence of Pres. Stevens, W. P. Wilson was elected Pres. pro tem. Mr. Chester of the firm of Chester and Flemming, consulting engineers of Pittsburgh was present and plans for the new bridge across Third street hollow were discussed. Council asked that the plans be hurried and they will be open for bids about March 15. A new ordinance drawn up by Burgess Reamer was presented and handed over to the ordinance committee. This new ordinance complies with the State laws, and will take the place of the one that was shown invalid in the recent piano hearings. The fee has been reduced and provision is made to cover all cases.

PROMISED TO CLOSE UP THE CLUB BARS

Jeannette is just now in the throes of a municipal cleanup. The Law and Order League of that town are after clubs, speakeasies and other scources through which the illegal sale of liquor passes. Within the past week two institutions have been forced to close their doors and abandon the sale of intoxicants. The Drum Corps and the Eagles club rooms have been closed. The President of the Drum Corps was a constable, and when Judge Doty gave his ringing advice to constables all over the county, it fell hard on some of Jeannette's officers. Harry Fell, who was high up in affairs of the Drum Corps, went before District Attorney Dom and promised to close up if prosecutions would be dropped. The place was closed up. Every fraternal society with a bar attachment and every club that dispenses liquor in the town was returned to the District Attorney and the two selected upon which to base suits plead guilty and agreed to close up. It is believed other suits will follow and the League promises to continue the effective work until every semblance of "speakeasy" in the town has been wiped away. Prior to this uprising on the part of the citizens, it is said Jeannette was one of the worst places in the county for the sale of intoxicants contrary to law. The crusade is the outcome of the far reaching mandate read to the constaples by Judge L. W. Doty.

TO-NIGHT'S MEETINGS PROMISE GREAT THINGS AND GREATER TOMORROW

Yesterday's meeting in the Union Evangelistic services were the best yet, and the large attendance at the prayer meetings in the afternoon was evidence of the quickening spirit ever present.

A few suggestions at the personal workers' meeting in the Christian church. "Seek the annointing of the Lord's spirit and take the Gospel of good cheer to the spiritually needy. It will multiply sympathies and friends." "The Gospel puts so much in the way to hinder sin, conscience, fear of God and punishment," The world may hate you, hurt your feelings, but can't injure your message, backed by Gods spirit and presence. Take His message to your friends; if they respond to you they will have responded to Christ himself. If they reject you they reject Him. Shall your faith falter, your prayers cease? never; victory is near."

The Opera House was comfortable. The ushers passed buttons with red cross to each one in the audience "wear it" said Mr. Welch, "it says I am a Christian."

The chorus led in a song service. Rev. Wallace led in prayer Mr. Porter read the scripture, Matt. 26: 36-46 Jack Spade based his remarks on Christ and the scene in the garden. Rev. MacDonald led in prayer.

Mr. Porter's text was "Who is this?" "Is Christ an Impostor?" "Does an impostor go about doing good? It made me a better man, a changed man," said Mr Porter. "Is this a mere man? Can this mender of shattered lives be only human? He is the son of God, for nothing short of the divine could make a drunkard temperate and loving." "Was he deluded? my saviour is a living saviour and keeps me. He can lift you up, you 'down and out' fellows." "Have you solved this question, "Who is this?" "men away from home, I took my father's and mother's saviour. He was good enough for them, and I found Him the only saviour for me."

"What are you doing with him?" Mr. Porter asked. "Accept Jesus now as your saviour. God has provided the way to save you."

Mr. Welch asked the audience to bow their heads and pray while he sang "Bearing His Cross." The audience prayed for the conversion of souls of their friends and a revival. Hundreds of hands went up promising not to falter in faith or to cease praying and working. Jack Spade sung his little child's song "Little friends of Jesus." "My little child sung this just before she went to glory." Jack sat down crying.

Mr. Wallace closed the meeting with prayer. Two new speakers tonight at the opera house. Mr. Wm. Butler an ex-gambler, converted by Billy Sunday's efforts. The other, Mr. Ira Forrest, both very forcible speakers, it is said.

The usual morning services tomorrow will be held in the various churches. In the afternoon at three o'clock, Miss Brehn of Pittsburgh will address a mass meeting for women only, in the Christian church. A mass meeting will be held at the same hour in the Star theater for men only. One of the New Castle speakers and others will make addresses. Announcements of the evening services will be made at the three oclock meetings.

Personal workers and others please meet at the Christian church at 7 o'clock this evening, then everybody be at the opera house at 7:45 sure.

LARGEST MINE IN WORLD IS STARTED

Vesta No. 5, mine located at Fredericktown, and claimed to be the largest bituminous mine in the world, began active operation last week, when the steamer Vesta arrived with five barges.

Although some little delay was experienced in getting the new machinery in order, everything is said to be working smoothly. No effort is being made for a "capacity" run and probably none will be made for some time. The officials will content themselves with a thorough trying out of the machinery before operations are begun on a large scale.

Our Best Gas Well

The second largest gas well in the history of Westmoreland county was drilled in yesterday on the farm of Joseph Laughlin, leased by the American Gas Company, one mile from Jeannette. The gas was struck at a depth of 3,300 feet and the pressure was very great.

Miss Lee McClain is calling on friends in Pittsburgh today.

Gentlemen:—

It affords me great pleasure to recommend the Lester Piano as I feel that I am in a position to know whereof I speak, having used your Lester Pianos in my different theatres including Monessen, Fayette City, Charleroi, Donora, Sistersville, W. Va., Oil City and numerous other places. Before using the Lester I tried many other so called high grade pianos without success. I find the Lester stays in tune and stands the hard usage such as a piano naturally receives in a theatre, and its sweet sympathetic singing quality of tone has always proved a great pleasure not only to our performers but to the audience as well.

To anyone considering the purchase of a piano, I most highly recommend the Lester. I would not use any other.

Wishing you continued success, I remain,

Yours very truly
(signed) W. A. McSHAFFREY.

DICKEY ANNOUNCES FOR LEGISLATURE

Friends in Monessen of E. F. Dickey, will be pleased to learn that gentleman is an aspirant for legislative honors. He has announced as a candidate for the nomination on the Republican ticket at the coming primaries April 13th. Mr. Dickey hails from New Kensington one of the most prosperous sections of the county and he is well known in every section. He was a candidate last year for county commissioner and was one of the high men at the nomination.

To Give Annual Banquet

The Civic League of Belle Vernon has planned its annual banquet for the evening of Febuary 20th. It will be held in the spacious dining room of the Birmingham hotel and there will be seventy plates. It is needless to say that this will be one of the most enjoyable civic affairs of the season in the upper Monongahela valley. Belle Vernon has the right idea when it comes to an entertainment of this kind. It has hospitality in abundance and it spreads it just right.

The Bijou

We are showing an unusally good feature today and are showing it for our usual price of admission, 5 cents. A big Biograph picture in two reels "A Blot in the 'Scutcheon." This is something entirely new in moving pictures and should not be missed by anyone. Many people wonder where their money goes so fast, but it remained for the Vitagraph to show to the people in a comic photo play, "Where The Money Went."

Buy a Lester Piano
Why!

There are many reasons. First they last a life time. Second they are of the highest grade only. Third there are over 5,460 now in use, and that many satisfied customers. Fourth they are guaranteed for 100 years. And many hundred good and safe reasons why you should buy a Lester. E. G. Hays and Co. 47 6th street, Opp. Independent office.

A SPLENDID MUSICAL BY THE GOUNODS

The musical given yesterday afternoon and evening at the display rooms of the E. G. Hays Music Co., on Sixth street, opposite the new Independent office by the famous Gounod orchestra of Pittsburgh, was a most pleasing affair and was attended by a large number of peolpe. This orchestra needs no special introduction. It has frequently played in Monessen as well as other towns along the valley and their reputation is established. Their work was pleasing to all, the selections being of the very latest and most popular. Mr. James L. Dougherty, special representative for the E. G. Hays Music Co., is in charge of the orchestra, and he took much pride in giving Monessen folk the very latest and best in the way of an entertainment as well as the company does in pianos. Mr. Horace Hays, one of the heads of the firm was here all day Friday, giving his special attention to the work, and he will be here Monday to assist in looking after their work which has reached unexpected proportions.

The E. G. Hays Co., is one among the best, oldest and most honorable music firms in Western Pennsylvania.

Many Attend Subscription Dance

The Subscription dance given last evening in Might's auditorium in Charleroi proved a most enjoyable affair. Over 60 couples were in attendance, many local people being included in this number. The dance was formal and the hall was appropriately decorated for the occasion. Music was furnished by the Gounod orchestra of Pittsburgh.

Sunday School Class Party

A party given at the home of Martha Griffith last evening on McKee avenue, by her Sunday school class of the Presbyterian church furnished a pleasant evening entertainment for about twenty girls and boys. Music, singing and various games formed the diversions and a dainty lunch was served.

In the onrush and hurry of Modern civilization and life, do we think as much as we might of the happiness of those who are growing old. They have endured much; they have lost much. Youth and often health, most of the dear friends and companions who started with them on life's journey. Yet we do very often begrudge them the brightness and joy we might so easily put into their lives. We refuse to listen to the old folks' talks and reviews of their recollections of past and happy days, of which they love to tell. We let them see and know so plainly that they are of the past; that their day is done, and ours has just begun.

That they, who have borne the burden, and labored through the heat of the day, toiled and struggled and worn themselves out for our own personal benefit and advancement, should be left to feel lonely and neglected, is sorrowful in the extreme. We can and should, each everyone of us, in our humble way, do something to at least keep a bit of the glow of youth and a feeling of content along with the knowledge that they—the old folks—are not in the way, but that their companionship is appreciated and that we love and appreciate them. In other words bring back the glow of spring time and summer, and a pleasent memory of the days of roses and love into the lives that are fast drifting to the end—the winter of life—the final rest or sleep that knows no waking, except in the world to come.

Of their own volition the Duquesne Elks have decided to forever banish the "side board" from their quarters, and this will, it is thought, be a long step toward driving all club bars from that town. The Duquesne Observer says, "The lodge realized that as long as it permitted the operation of a sideboard in its club room, it would be looked upon with some suspicion by the better element of the community." A member of the Duquesne lodge also said: "The Duquesne lodge is simply taking action that will, sooner or later, be taken up by other lodges of the Order throughout the country." Thus the movement goes on toward a much needed reform.

From day to day the romance of real life exceeds the highest flights of the novelists imagination. Keep an eye on the day's news as chronicled in the country's press and you'll soon realize that nothing is incredible. Real, hard facts, the occurences in real life daily, are more interesting to many, than the fiction of our best writers.

We are led to suppose that the day will never come when the lazy man will be eliminated from the world's problem. He is found in every community, usually the husband of some good, honest woman who slaves from day to day that he may act the gentleman.

It is said that even old Pittsburgh is waking up, and that her councilmanic committee on public safty is about to look into the speakeasies and clubs that are making business flat and unprofitable for the legally licensed houses, and working incalculable harm.

ODD FELLOWS TO TO ENJOY SIESTA

Much interest is being manifest among the fraternity of Odd Fellows about Monessen in the event which is to take place this Saturday evening at Donora, when what is known in lodge parlance as a "Siesta of the Princes of Bagdad" will be held by Tancred Commandery No. 359. There are quite a number of Monessen Odd Fellows going, and they are going to take their women folks too, for this is one of the times when wives, mothers or sweethearts are welcome within the sacred and secret confines of the halls of Odd-fellowdom. It is also one of those events peculiar to the Order when much is anticipated in the way of entertainment, amusement and good things. There will be visitors from all surrounding towns, and the McKeesport team will confer the degree.

Ashland, Ky.—"Four years ago I seemed to have everything the matter with me. I had female and kidney trouble and was so bad off I could hardly rest day or night. SAGE TEA WILL DARKEN THE HAIR

Restore Faded and Gray Hair to Natural Color—Dandruff Quickly Removed.

There is nothing new about the idea of using sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our great-grandmothers kept their locks soft, dark and glossy by using a "sage tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance they made a brew of sage leaves and applied it to their hair, with wonderfully beneficial effect.

Nowadays we don't have to resort to old-time, tiresome methods of gathering the herbs and making the tea. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves, and all we have to do is to call for the ready-made product, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, containing sage in the proper strength, with the addition of sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy.

The manufacturers of this remedy authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

Don't neglect your hair. Get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur to-day, and notice the difference after a few days' use.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

A Water Doctor Cured Her

"For years I had suffered from a weak back and pain in my kidneys. At times I was laid up in bed and not able to bend my back. The doctors treated me for inward trouble but I kept getting weaker. Then dropsy set in and the urine became scanty and dark colored. My appetite failed, breath became short and eyes weak. I was told I had Bright's Disease and could not get well. Under Dr. Shafer's treatment I was soon able to get out of bed and in a short time was cured. This was five years ago and I am still well." MRS. MARY HAUSMAN, 715 Idlewood Ave., Carnegie, Pa.

After reading the public statement of this fellow-sufferer given below, you must come to this conclusion: "A remedy which cured years ago, which has kept the kidneys in good health since, can be relied upon to perform the same work in other cases. Read this:

John H. Hixenbaugh, 108 Wood street, Belle Vernon, Pa., says: "I suffered from kidney trouble for three years. My back became lame and sore and it was necessary for me to give up my work. I finally learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and procuring a supply, I began their use The contents of four boxes effected a complete cure." (Statement given September 3, 1909.)

A LASTING EFFECT

On Nov. 12, 1909, Mr. Hixenbaugh, said: "I do not hesitate to confirm the statement I gave for publication in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills two years ago. The cure they effected in my case was practically permanent, but I have used Doan's Kidney Pills on several occasions since then, finding that they keep my kidneys in good working order."

E G. Hays & Co.,
Pittsburg, Pa

Gentlemen:—

It affords me great pleasure to recommend the Lester Piano as I feel that I am in a position to know whereof I speak, having used your Lester Pianos in my different theatres including Monessen, Fayette City, Charleroi, Donora, Sistersville, W. Va., Oil City and numerous other places. Before using the Lester, I tried many so-called high grade pianos without success. I find the Lester stays in tune and stands the hard usage such as a piano naturally receives in a theatre, and its sweet, sympathetic singing quality of tone has always proved a great pleasure, not only to our performers, but to the audience as well.

To anyone considering the purchase of a piano, I most highly recommend the Lester. I would not use any other. Wishing you continued success, I remain,

Yours very truly,
(Signed) W. A McShaffrey.
